
* THEATRE IN HENLEY *
* *

HENLEY-IN-ARDEN AMATEUR DRAMATIC SOCIETY PRESENT

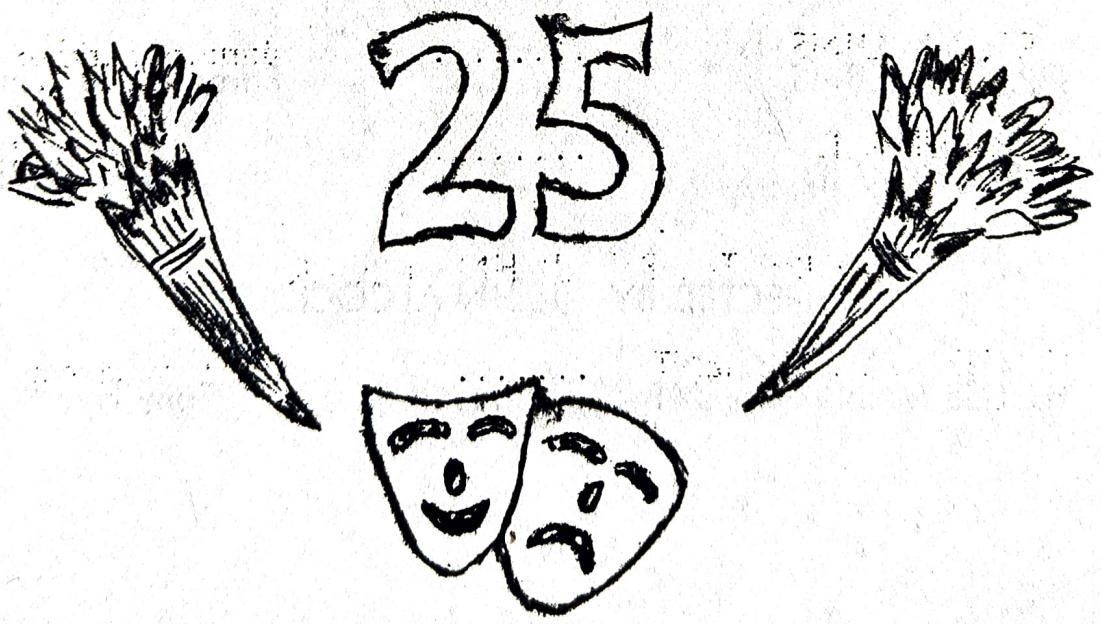

ON THEIR 25th ANNIVERSARY

"PYGMALION"

by

GEORGE BERNARD SHAW

On Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday
19th, 20th & 21st November 1979

CAST

(In order of appearance)

MISS EYNSFORD-HILL	Krystina Aukstolis
MRS. EYNSFORD-HILL	Pam Wadley
A BYSTANDER	Keith Percival
FREDDY EYNSFORD-HILL	Ian Johnson
ELIZA DOOLITTLE	Sarah Smith
COLONEL PICKERING	Peter Standley
HENRY HIGGINS	Alan Butler **
SARCASTIC BYSTANDER	Julie Pullin
TAXI DRIVER	Ian Mcvie
MRS. PEARCE	Beryl Butler **
ALFRED DOOLITTLE	Graham Vaughan
MRS. HIGGINS	Barbara Kirkham
PARLOURMAID	Helen Wall

DIRECTED BY JOHN ALCOCK

HOUSE MANAGEMENT Tony Hyam

SYNOPSIS OF ACTS

ACT 1 St. Paul's Church, Covent Garden, 11.15 p.m.

ACT 2 Henry Higgins' Laboratory, Next Morning

INTERVAL

ACT 3 Mrs. Higgins' "At Home" some weeks later
(Pause)

ACT 4 Higgins' Laboratory, Midnight, some months later

ACT 5 Higgins' Laboratory, Next Morning

PRODUCTION

Stage Manager John Shuttleworth

Asst. Stage Manager Roger Weatherhead

Scenery Team led by Joe Green **

Lighting Roger Weatherhead & Phil Adams

Costume Isabel Bottoms

Properties Wendy German

Make-up Barbara Alcock

Prompt Gill Ghee

 Denotes Founder Member of the Society

PYGMALION was first performed in London in April 1914. Ever since the play has proved a constant delight to actors and audiences alike and, among its well drawn characters, Henry Higgins, Eliza Doolittle and her father - Alfred, have become classic characters of the stage.

Several of Shaw's favourite themes are reflected here - society, the English language and the independent female who challenges the barriers of social convention - but the tone is lighter than usual. It is the author's roguish wit which gives the play its sparkle, that always assures an entertaining performance.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Our grateful thanks to friends of the Society who have kindly provided furniture and a variety of other items for use on the stage.

For further information regarding the Society contact our Secretary -

Barbara Kirkham
12 de Montfort Court
Henley-in-Arden
Tel: 3330

Or any of the other members of the Society
