

*****
*
* "THEATRE IN HENLEY" *
*
*****

HENLEY DRAMA SOCIETY

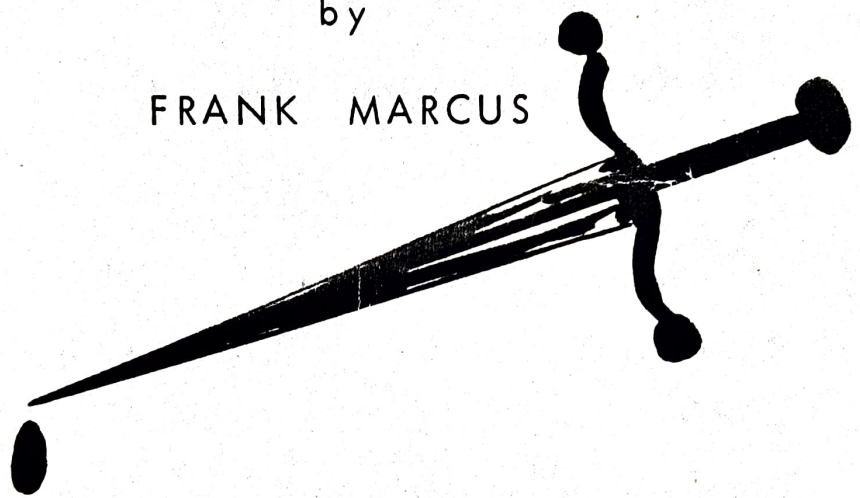

Present

"THE KILLING OF SISTER GEORGE"

*****

by

FRANK MARCUS

The Memorial Hall, Henley-in-Arden

on

Thursday, Friday & Saturday - 23rd, 24th & 25th February, 1984

PROGRAMME 10p

*****

CAST

*****

JUNE BUCKRIDGE (SISTER GEORGE)

Played by BARBARA ALCOCK

ALICE 'CHILDIE' MCNAUGHT

Played by CARLYNE ADAMS

MRS MERCY CROFT

Played by FAYE PESTER

MADAME XENIA

Played by HELEN WALL

The Play Produced by PHILIP DALE

*****

House Manager	.....	Tony Hyam
Stage Manager	.....	John Shuttleworth
Scenery	.....	Joe Green & The Team
Lighting	.....	John Tandy
Costumes	.....	Isobel Bottoms
Properties	.....	Fiona Sutherland-Jones
Prompt	.....	Philip Dale
Programme	.....	Annette Walker

*****

Synopsis of Acts
*****

ACT 1

A Tuesday afternoon in late September

ACT 2

Scene 1      A week later - 4 a.m.

INTERVAL
*****

Scene 2      Late afternoon of the same day

ACT 3

Two weeks later - Morning

Synopsis of the Play
*****

'The Killing of Sister George' is a Tragi-Comedy that explores and highlights the impermanence of all things.

During the course of the play June Buckridge - known as Sister George by the fans of her radio serial, finds herself battling to save her job, her home life and to retain her own self dignity.

*****

The Society wishes to thank all those who have loaned items for use in the play.

NEXT PRODUCTION

Our next production will be "The Unexpected Guest"
By Agatha Christie on the 26th, 27th & 28th April