THE NEXT PLAY READING TAKES PLACE ON MONDAY

2ND MARCH - AT THE MEMORIAL HALL

AT 8 p.m.

For their mid-season production, Henley-in-Arden Drama Society have chosen "Confusions" by Alan Ayckbourn, directed by Sheila Davies.

"Confusions" is a set of five inter-linked one-act plays, each dealing riotously but with sharply pointed undertones, with human eccentricities and the human dilemma of loneliness.

Long standing members of Henley's audience will welcome the return, after 17 years in County Durham, of Hugh and Sheila Davies. Sheila directs the play and Hugh takes part in two of the cameos.

Several members who made their stage debut in 'walking-on' roles in the December production of "The Boyfriend" have parts in this production. A new member whose face will be familiar to many members of the audience, is Steve Freedman, he is usually to be seen dispensing in the local pharmacy!

Even more nostalgia - the grandson of the Society's first electrician, the late Ken Terry, is to handle the stage lighting. He is Scott Palmer who studied stage lighting and sound at University and is, at present, staying in Henley-in-Arden with his Grandmother Nora, a life long supporter of the Society.
