

Henley-in-Arden Drama Society
presents

More Christmas Crackers

Programme and Carol Sheet

Henley Memorial Hall
Friday 21st & Saturday 22nd December 2007

50 pence

Tonight, we are presenting three short plays

- 1 "Puss in Slippers" by Richard Tydeman
 directed by Carol Robson

A panto mini drama with 'no boots', in 3 scenes:

- Miller's house - home of his three daughters
- King Dacius' castle
- Ogre's castle

Interval

- 2 "Albert and the Liner" by Keith Waterhouse
 directed by Carol Robson

A short story about memories of Christmas' past, with three friends who, as a special treat, were taken to see the 'fabulous' toyshop in the City Arcade as Christmas approached.

Interval

- 3 "Last Panto in Henley"
 adapted from a play by David Tristram directed by Eunice Bagshaw

A one act play about the trials and tribulations that small amateur dramatic societies endure in order to put on lavish productions like this one!

Mulled wine and mince pies will be served in the intervals

Performers

in order of appearance

Alan Nicholls
Alan Harrison
Carol Robson
Kate Castle
Sheena Ison
Rebecca Shaw
Tracy Humphries
Phil Walker
Fred Dowling
Beryl Butler
Eunice Bagshaw
Rod Hinton
Ray Evans

Support Crew

Stage Manager	Sue Tootill
Artistic Director	Sue Evans & costumes
Set	Phil Walker
Props	Marjorie Earnshaw
Lighting/Sound	Tony Capps & Ian Smedley
Prompt	Mandy Key
Refreshments	Marijana Bainbridge + the 'A' Team
Front of House	Brian Hammond
plus, members of the Society

And to finish, please join in with Carols - the words are on the back page