INTERVAL

ACT TWO

The same - immediately following

When Richard Willey, a Government Junior Minister plans to spend an evening with Jane Worthington, one of the opposition's typists, things go disastrously wrong - beginning with the discovery of a body trapped in the hotel's only unreliable sash window. Desperately trying to get out of an extremely sticky situation, Richard calls for his PPS George Pigden who, through Richard's lies, sinks further and further into trouble with everybody and ends up going through an identity crisis. Things go from bad to worse with the arrival of Ronnie, Jane's distraught husband and with the addition of the unscrupulous waiter, Mrs Willey and Nurse Foster, things really come to a head!
