

MEMORIAL HALL

HENLEY - IN - ARDEN

Henley-in-Arden (T.I.C.) Amateur Dramatic Society

present

YOUNG WIVES' TALE

A Comedy in Three Acts

by RONALD JEANS

Monday May 9th, 1955

Young Wives' Tale

First produced on July 7th, 1949,
at the Savoy Theatre, London, starring Naunton Wayne and Joan Greenwood

---

The action of the Play passes in the sitting-room on the ground floor of a house at the wrong end of St. John's Wood, London, soon after the war

---

- ACT 1 ... Early evening, April
- ACT 2 ... Evening, a fortnight later
- ACT 3 ... The next morning

CHARACTERS

in order of their appearance

RODNEY PENNANT ..... MICHAEL GUNTON
SABINA PENNANT (his wife) ..... JAN LEEK
NURSE BLOTT ..... BEATRICE PARKES
EVE LESTER ..... SALLY PAYNE
GERMAN WOMAN ..... ANNE FITTON
MARY BANNING ..... BERYL BUTLER
BRUCE BANNING (her husband) ..... ALAN BUTLER
VICTOR MANIFOLD ..... JOE GREEN
NURSE GALLOP ..... DOROTHY GALLAGHER

---

The Play produced by RON BOROUGHS

---

Stage Manager : MISS PHYLLIS POOLE

Com Litter

Orwell.

Sally Taylor

1910
1911
1912

The Henley-in-Arden Amateur Dramatic Society is just a year old, and presents tonight their first full-length production.

John H. H. H.

W. H. H.

P. H. H.

Henley Amateurs are sponsored by the Town Improvement Committee, and all profits will go to that body for purposes such as the upkeep of the Memorial Hall and Playing Fields.

Beryl Butler

Gene E. Lovack

Paul G. G.

But the Henley Amateurs do not themselves seek profit. Their pleasure is to bring entertainment to the people of Henley-in-Arden. If you like the production—please tell your friends—and do come again.

Beatrice L. Parkes

Henry H. H.