

HENLEY IN ARDEN DRAMA SOCIETY

PRESENT

“It Could Be Any One Of Us”

By
Alan Ayckbourn

16th-19th February at 7.30pm in
The Memorial Hall

PROGRAMME 30p

The scene is the hall/sitting room of a somewhat shabby country house. It opens one rainy windswept evening and ends two weeks later. There are two Acts and each has two scenes. There will be an interval of fifteen minutes between the Acts. Note from the Director; - This might have been an ordinary "who dunnit" but the people who live in the house are all failures; any one might be a candidate for murder and any one could be a murderer but this is Ayckbourn sending up the Christie type of thriller with tongue-in-cheek humour and, maybe, some sympathy for those people whose artistic reach wildly exceeds its grasp.

Cast

Mortimer Chalke	a composer	Ray Evans
Jocelyn Chalke	a writer, his sister	Rosie Hammond
Brinton Chalke	a painter, his brother	Rob Ison
Amy Polegate	Jocelyn's daughter	Marie-Angela Dionisi
Norris Honeywell	a detective	Phil Walker
Wendy Windwood		Sheena Ison

Directed by	Eunice Bagshaw
Stage Manager	Sue Tootil
Set Build	Kevin Allen, Phil Walker & John Shuttleworth,
Stage & Lighting Design	Kevin Allen
Lighting Technician	Ian Smedley
Decor	Sue Evans assisted by Sue Tootil & Carol Robson
Sound	John Shuttleworth
Wardrobe	Sue Evans
Prompt	Kate Dale
Properties	Marjorie Earnshaw & Mandy Key
Advertising	Colin Fisher
Tickets	Bryan Castle
Front of House	Marijana Bainbridge

Chairmans Message

Welcome to the 2nd season of this our 50th Anniversary Season. We hope that you enjoy this offering from the prolific pen of Alan Ayckbourn.

Looking ahead, our Summer Spectacular this year is to be Alan Bennett's adaptation of "WIND IN THE WILLOWS" to be performed in the glorious setting of the Guild Hall gardens in mid June. We hope to see you all there.

Regards

Phil Walker, Chairman